

On the cover: Gold Series 24 cartridge dust collectors are shown installed at RHEIN-RUHR Beschichtungs-Service in Rheinberg, Germany, to collect dust during a flame-powder and wire-spraying application. Collectors' explosion protection systems meet ATEX requirements. Collectors use the supplier's HemiPleat cartridge filters with high-efficiency media to keep emissions below applicable standards. Collectors' fans are controlled with variable-frequency drives to optimize airflow and minimize energy consumption.
